

University of Arizona
Financial Aid Calculation for International Students in Masters / Doctoral Programs

Estimated Expected Family Contribution (EFC) Calculator instructions

Calculator instructions:

Dependency status

- If you are single, select "Independent Student"
- If you have dependents, select "Independent Student with Dependents" (this applies to married students or students with children)

Age of older parent

- Leave blank

Number of Family members in household

- If you are single, enter "1", otherwise enter appropriate number in your household, including yourself and/or your spouse and/or your children.

Number of children in college

- Enter "1", otherwise enter appropriate number in your household, including yourself and/or your spouse and/or your children.

Student's Income

- This is U.S. taxable income for last calendar year. If you did not earn income in the U.S. in the last calendar year, enter "0".

Student Assets

- The current value of a business and/or farm (excluding farms that are considered working farms or place of residence)
- Enter value amount, if none enter "0"

Student Assets - other

- Value of all cash (checking and savings accounts), real estate and investments (excluding the value of your primary residence)
- Enter value amount; it is expected that each family have some assets to contribute, you must enter at least "1".

Parent Information

- Leave blank

Form Submission Instructions:

Take a screen shot of the calculator and values and the results and paste it into a word document.

Email/submit the word document file with the screen shot and the Financial Need Calculation for International Students form to your academic advisor for their signature. If you are selected to receive an award, your academic advisor will forward the forms to the Office of Scholarship and Financial Aid for processing (OSFA-DeptAskAid@email.arizona.edu).