

Financial Aid Petition For Graduate Preparatory Work

Processing time: Minimum of three weeks

FGRPRE

Non-degree seeking students are not eligible to receive federal financial aid, however, you may appeal your financial aid status via an allowable exception in the financial aid regulations [668.32(a)(1)(ii)]. Petition steps: (1) file an application as a graduate non-degree seeking student for the term of this financial aid award (<http://grad.arizona.edu/>); (2) file an application to the anticipated graduate degree program for consideration of admission for a future term (<http://grad.arizona.edu/>); (3) obtain appropriate signatures on form; (4) file form with the Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid for processing.

II. STUDENT CERTIFICATION

I am enrolled at least half-time (6 units) in a course of study in anticipation of being admitted to the following University of Arizona graduate degree program: _____

I understand that the following Graduate Department Certification is in no way a commitment nor a promise by the University of Arizona or any department of the University of Arizona to admit me as a student once this course of study is satisfactorily completed. I further understand that I may only receive Federal Direct Loan funds at the undergraduate senior level, and, if dependent, Federal Parent PLUS Loan funds, for only one consecutive 12-month period beginning on the first day of the loan period. I may only receive federal funds once for preparatory coursework either at the University of Arizona or at another school during my academic career. All standard eligibility requirements still apply.
