

Graduate Non-Degree Seeking Petition for Federal Financial Aid

FGRPRE

Processing time: 3 Week Minimum

Non-degree seeking students are not eligible to receive federal financial aid, however, you may appeal your financial aid status via an allowable exception in the financial aid regulations [668.32(a)(1)(ii)].

Note: To be eligible, the student must be taking classes that are a prerequisite for admission. If the student is only taking classes to raise his/her GPA in order to be admitted, the student would not qualify for federal financial aid.

When completing the 20xx-20xx Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), Graduate Non-Degree seeking students should PROVIDE OR UPDATE* the following answers to the questions listed below:

- When you begin the 20xx-20xx school year, what will be your grade level?
Answer: 5th year/other undergraduate
- When you begin the 20xx-20xx school year, what degree or certificate will you be working on?
Answer: Other/Undecided
- At the beginning of the 20xx-20xx school year, will you be working on a master's or doctorate program?
Answer: No

 If you have already completed your FAFSA, please return and revise the questions above.*

Federal Loan Eligibility Limits

For purposes of federal financial aid eligibility, Graduate Non-Degree seeking students are considered enrolled in "preparatory coursework to enroll in a graduate program." Independent students may be eligible to borrow up to $12,500 in Federal Direct Subsidized and/or Unsubsidized loans. The amount and loan type is based on demonstrated financial need and other information provided on the FAFSA. Dependent students may be eligible to borrow up to $7,500 in Federal Direct Subsidized and/or Unsubsidized loans. Your dependency status is determined by federal regulations (<https://studentaid.ed.gov/fafsa/filling-out/dependency>). The Petition for Graduate Preparatory Work is limited to a single consecutive 12-month period.

The following criteria must be met to be eligible for The Petition for Graduate Preparatory Work:

- The courses to be taken are prerequisites for enrollment in a program leading to a degree.
- The courses must be part of an eligible program otherwise offered by the school even though the student is not yet enrolled in that program.
- The student is enrolled at least half-time (6 units) in these prerequisite courses.
- The preparatory courses may not be used to raise the student's GPA in order to be admitted to the program.
- The student must not have previously received loans under this provision.

If you need to borrow beyond the limited amount of Federal Direct Loans available to you, parents of dependent students may be eligible to borrow the Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan. Independent students seeking to borrow beyond the limited amount of Federal Direct Loans may pursue a private educational loan.
